Experiencing Indonesian Culture in Traditional Costume

IndoNakano fêtes 40th anniversary with ceremony

Heading into the future with every employee as asset

PT IndoNakano (Location: Jakarta 12920, Indonesia; Managing Director: Yasuharu Mitsudera), a subsidiary of the 92-year-old Nakano Corporation (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President: Takashi Iizuka), celebrated the 40th anniversary of its founding in September 2025 with a commemorative ceremony on Friday, October 10, in Jakarta.

About 20 people, including Managing Director Yasuharu Mitsudera of IndoNakano, local managers and staff of the company, along with President Takashi Iizuka and other executives of Nakano Corporation, attended the ceremony. In a venue rich in a splendid atmosphere of unity, all of the participants were adorned in traditional Indonesian batik attire.

After the screening of a commemorative video looking back on IndoNakano's 40-year history, the company held a commendation ceremony to pay tribute to the contributions of all employees, expressing special gratitude to those with long years of service.

The company has built a record of achievement in Indonesia over the years, primarily in factory construction. Looking ahead, it will leverage that track record to undertake a wide range of construction projects, with sights set on expanding its sales area.

■ Congratulatory address by President Takashi Iizuka

At the ceremony, Nakano Corporation President Takashi Iizuka said, "The road has never been a smooth one over these 40 years, amid difficulties including economic crises, rapid environmental changes, and the pandemic. It is thanks to all of you here that we have reached this milestone today. The company's true assets are not its buildings or equipment, but rather the presence of every one of you. We will provide all the support that we can to let you continue working with pride. Combining our strength as one, let us all continue building the future as we head toward the next anniversary."
