Nakano Corporation

A project constructed by Nakano Singapore was featured on CNA TV

Nakano Corporation (Headquarters: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President : Takashi Iizuka), a company with a 93-year history, is pleased to announce that the “LyndenWoods Condominium” project, which is being constructed by our subsidiary Nakano Singapore (Pte) Ltd (Location: The Adelphi, 179803 Singapore; Representative: Kiyoshi Kataoka; hereinafter referred to as “Nakano Singapore”) was featured on “Building Change”, a program by CNA, a Singapore-based news media.

CNA’s “Building Change” is a three-part video series exploring the evolution of Singapore’s built environment sector.

One episode features the ‘LyndenWoods Condominium’ project, for which Nakano Singapore served as the main contractor, as a case of the first private-sector project in Singapore to adopt the collaborative contract model NEC4.

In the video, Mr. Victor Lim, Deputy Managing Director of Nakano Singapore, is interviewed and explains the benefits of collaboration among project stakeholders through the use of ECI and NEC4.
